Eventually—why not Now?

A Call and a Challenge

The Canadian losses around Ypres have been heavy. Hundreds of our best have been killed and wounded. But while we mourn we must think of the gallantry our soldiers showed. With what dogged valor did they hold the line against the Germans. How bravely they fought even when outnumbered.

There are many sad gaps in their ranks today. Those gaps must be filled. Where are the other Canadians to fill them? The men at the front have given up their lives for Canada and the Empire, of which Canada is a part, may not perish beneath the Prussian heel.

Are we to leave all to the men in the trenches? Must we not give them adequate help? Who will step forward and offer? What of the hundreds of young men who are still in safety at home while the heroes of Ypres are dying for them?

Every list of Canadian losses these days is a call to arms. From their graves our dead call to us to do our duty.

Shall we ignore that call? Who will fill the depleted ranks? The young men of Canada are offered the choice that a great general gave his men so long ago—"Soldiers, I offer you wounds and death."

And, as that general found thousands to answer the heroic challenge, so we may hope Canada will find more thousands still. For the cause of the British Empire today is nobler and grander far; on it depends the world's freedom.

FOR THE BEREFT

Many homes are saddened by a realization of the supreme sacrifice of war. Family circles are accepting in poignant grief the relentless truth that the brave men who went forth will never return. Only those who have felt the tragic severance of the ties of family affection and personal friendship can know the price that victory demands from those for whom the sturdy manhood of the race is willing to fight and die. The shock of grief must come with the realization that the last word has been exchanged, but there is a sustaining strength in knowing that the cause for which the treasured lives have been given up was worth the ultimate price. Human liberty and national integrity are worthy of the free and noble sacrifice of life, for without these treasured heritages life would be lived unworthily.

Every family bereft of a loved member can feel that there is hope in sorrow, that heroic sacrifice for a noble cause is never in vain, and that the hour of grief is the hour of victory. In other parts of the Dominion, to farm house and city home, the same saddening and sustaining experience has come. And among those who have not felt the loss in the family circle or among close personal friends there is a spontaneous and strengthening sympathy and a full appreciation that deepens the sense of national pride. When Canada's turn came in the varying fortunes of conflict her sons were found prepared to die for the cause they have at heart. They made the sacrifices demanded. Whether asked to face slow privation or sudden stress, they never failed. Their lives have been sold for a splendid price, for they have weakened the barbarous menace to human liberty and have inspired the Dominion and the Empire with a nobler and more heroic devotion to the highest ideals. "Not a disembodied spirit do the weapons of tyrants let loose, but it stalks invisibly over the earth cautioning, counselling, strengthening."

THE CENTENARY OF THE BATTLE OF SEVEN OAKS

A hundred years ago (June 19) the battle of Seven Oaks was fought just outside of what is now Winnipeg. It was a small affair, when one considers the number of men engaged, but full of importance to the future of this country, and despite the fact that so stupendous a conflict is now engaging our attention and energies, it is worth recalling what this engagement signified. At a ceremony held on the battlefield on the 19th Prof. Chester Martin, of the University of Manitoba, declared that he doubted if "another single event compared with Seven Oaks in its fundamental influence in forcing the government not only to recognition but to tardy recognition and vindication of settlement of the district."

The story of the battle, and of what led up to it is not as well known, even to native Canadians as it should be. It was the culmination of the struggle between the rival fur-trading companies, the Hudson's Bay and the Nor' Westers. Lord Selkirk, having conceived the project of establishing a colony in this country, secured a large proportion of the Hudson's Bay stock, and after much opposition had a grant made to him in 1811 of 116,000 square miles of the territory, which he held under the charter given to Prince Rupert in 1870. This area, which he was to open up to settlement, was given to him for the nominal sum of ten shillings.

His friends told him he was a mad dreamer. One of them said to him: "If you are bent on doing something futile why do you not sow tares at home in order to reap wheat or plough the desert of Sarah?" This indicated what the general opinion was a century ago of the land which, in 1915, raised 350,000,000 bushels of wheat.

But Selkirk persisted in the face of immense difficulties. His colony suffered terrible hardships. The antagonism of the Nor' Westers, the purely fur-trading element, resolved itself finally into a deliberate attempt to uproot the settlement. When their party approached Fort Douglas, on the Red River, Governor Semple went out to meet them, and the Seven Oaks battle followed. Semple and twenty-two others were killed. The Nor' Westers had only one dead and one wounded.

They took charge of the fort. Selkirk endeavored to have the Nor' West leaders punished, but died before he succeeded. The encounter, however, had the effect of drawing attention to the need of putting an end to the anarchic condition that prevailed in Rupert's land, and in 1882 the two companies were united by act of parliament under the name of the Hudson's Bay.

From that time on till the purchase by Canada, in 1870, the Hudson's Bay company's authority was well established, and in the era of western expansion it undoubtedly was the means of keeping Rupert's Land British territory.

GERMAN FLEET MUCH WEAKENED

London, June 23.—(By Archibald Hurd, naval expert of London Daily Telegraph).—Three weeks have elapsed since the battle of Skagerrak, and it is possible, in the light of an immense mass of information from British and neutral sources, to form what will prove a verdict of the historians on one of the most splendid incidents of our naval annals.

The German high seas fleet, weaker by five capital ships, is so lame that it cannot move, so blind that it could not move, if it dared to do so. That is a matter on which there can be no doubt.

When the war opened, Germany possessed the following ships of the cruiser class (built and building) less than fifteen years old,

Regulate Kidneys AND Relieve Constipation

Gin Pills are acknowledged to have the largest sale of any proprietary medicine in Canada—an achievement solely due to their remarkable virtue as a Kidney and Bladder remedy.

But users of Gin Pills have discovered that this invaluable remedy also acts as a mild cathartic. The evidence of hundreds of letters we have received establishes the very logical fact that in compounding a medicine to heal and tone up the Kidneys and Bladder certain of the ingredients have a stimulating effect upon the other organs, especially the bowels. It is important to know, in the case of constipated patients, that Gin Pills do not act harshly on the bowels; there is no griping, but a gradual and gentle restoration of the function. Try Gin Pills for constipation. In thus relieving the bowels, you safeguard yourself against possible kidney trouble.

Gin Pills are 50c a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50 at your dealer's. A trial treatment will be sent upon request.

GinPills FOR THE KIDNEYS

those lost in the course of the war being given:

Battle cruisers—Original, number eight, since lost six, comprising the Lutzow, Goeben, Seydlitz (a complete wreck), Bleucher, Hindenburg, and another of a similar type, which it is believed, the Von Der Tann.

Large cruisers—Original number seven, since lost five, comprising the Yorck, Scharnhorst, Gneissau, Friedrich Karl, and the Prince Adalbert. The two remaining vessels are the Roon (launched in 1903, therefore 13 years old) and the Prince Heinrich (1900).

Light cruisers—Original number thirty, since lost twenty, comprising the Karlsruhe, Magdeburg, Koln, Mainz, Emden, Dresden, Nürnberg, Königsburg, Leipzig, Bremen, Undine, Kestock, Wiesbaden, Breslau, Frauenlob, Elbing, Ariadne, and three others, the names of which have not yet been revealed.

Out of the forty-five effective cruisers of all classes which Germany had built, and was building when the war opened, she therefore, possesses today only fourteen, and of these a large proportion was so seriously injured in the battle of Skagerrak to be at present ineffective. Those fourteen cruisers have to suffice for duty as scouts for battle squadrons, patrol ships for torpedo flotillas and for patrol work in the Baltic.

BACK FROM VERDUN: DECLARES FORT SAFE

Winnipeg, June 23.—"The Germans may claim to be supermen, but even supermen cannot take Verdun," declared Sergt. Gaston Loremy today.

Sergt. Loremy has reached St. Boniface, invalided home after having performed deeds of bravery at the front that earned him enviable distinction.

Loremy left Winnipeg on Aug. 10, 1914, being one of the first reservists to answer the call. After reaching France he was stationed for a while at Dijon, and then took part in the famous battle of the Marne.

Sergt. Loremy received the military cross with two clasps when fighting at Les Eparges. He volunteered with six comrades to fight in one of the conduits surrounded by Germans, and retired after exhausting all his ammunition. He also received the military medal for leading a company against a German trench where they gained a foothold and destroyed part of the trench before retiring.

"The morale of the soldiers is excellent. Munitions and guns are plentiful for the French army," he said.

Referring to the famous French 75 gun, he said: "When they get it going they establish a curtain of fire that mighty few can get by."

He claims that the French have a new siege gun "which is so powerful that the Hun won't try to fool with it."

He says he met a very young class of prisoners of the age of 17. The reserves of the German army, he said, were a very young lot of boys.

Asked about Verdun, he said a person had to see the country to know the exact conditions. "They will never take Verdun," he said. "The French army has ammunition to waste and guns galore. When we first got there we had to be careful how we spent ammunition; now we delight in spending it."

SETTLE WITH FRANCE AND THEN ENGLAND

London, June 21.—The Berliner Tageblatt, in a recent issue, sets forth a new theory in regard to the Entente's refusal to discuss peace on the basis of the German peace.

The Tageblatt says: "So far as we are concerned our conscience is clear. We have repeatedly made offers of peace to our enemies. They have obstinately refused, by France in particular, the others merely following suit."

"The fact is that France is the dominating power in the Entente resistance. We must, therefore, beat France first of all and finally."

GERMAN RATIONS OF MEAT REDUCED

Paris, June 22.—Information alleged to have been obtained from a deserter from the 28th German infantry is to the effect

CHAMBERLAIN'S 25¢ TABLETS
Constipation, Sour Stomach, Gases on the Stomach, Mouth's treatment in a package.

that the German soldiers fresh meat ration has been cut from 375 grams daily to 200 grams, which is just half of the ration of fresh meat received by the French soldiers. The German canned meat ration is also alleged to have been cut to 150 grams as compared with 250 grams of canned meat in the French ration.

ULSTER NATIONAL PARTY AGREES TO SETTLEMENT PLAN

Belfast, June 23.—A conference of Ulster nationalists was held here today to consider David Lloyd George's proposal for the settlement of the Irish question. John Redmond presided, and was supported by Joseph Devlin.

Delegates from all the Ulster counties and the bishops of these counties were present. In all 1000 delegates were in attendance.

The conference accepted Mr. Lloyd George's proposal by a vote of 475 to 265.

London, June 23.—The speech of John Redmond, the nationalist leader, at the national conference in Belfast today had the effect, according to an Exchange Telegraph company dispatch from Belfast, of securing the support of many who hitherto were opposed to the exclusion of some of the Ulster Counties from home rule.

It is officially stated, adds the dispatch, that Mr. Redmond declared that if the exclusion of six Ulster Counties was not accepted by the conference, he would resign the leadership of the Irish party.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dream sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take. Its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. Free from harmful drugs.

The traction engine was made to grip. So was Dunlop Traction Tread. Nothing has yet taken the place of the traction engine for long, continuous service. We don't think any other tire will ever take the place of Dunlop Traction Tread for the same function.

In a certain sense, Dunlop Traction Tread is larger than Canada. "Traction's" fame is limitless. Near imitations are to be found in many countries. Men have written from various portions of the world seeking the agency.

"Traction" holds the Canadian transcontinental tire record; has never failed as a shod-resister; made it possible for punctures to be a forgotten evil; drove out the dust nuisance; made auto-mobility by women more general; gave men all over the country a new idea of mileage.

In short, Dunlop Traction Tread has popularized motoring and, for the first time in the history of the motor car, has made Safety a certainty.

We have been rather fortunate, up to date, in having a supply of good paper to print The Western Globe on, but that time is over, and from now on we will have to be satisfied with what we can get. This week our newspaper shipment looks like a poor wrapping paper, and the mills say that the color will probably get worse as time goes on. The chemicals used in the manufacture of this commodity are being used for something else, and are getting scarce. However, this dark cream stuff is better than nothing, and we will have to use it.

Dr. Moore, Dentist, formerly of Lacombe, but later of Athabaska Landing, has decided that there is no place like Lacombe, and will open dental parlors in the Day Block early in July. Dr. Moore is well-known in Lacombe, and his many friends will be pleased to see him locate here again.

Lieut. Greenhill, who is in Lacombe recruiting for the "Bantams," thinks that conscription will be put in force in Canada before very long. He says the opinion of the majority of the leading men in Canada is most favorable to it as the only fair system. He says that the number of shirkers is incredible, and that since he arrived in Lacombe he has met many young men who have nothing to keep them back, and who have no excuse for not enlisting. He can not see how the eligible men can stand public opinion. He will be pleased to talk it over with any young man who finds it hard to make up his mind.

We have heard several complaints from farmers throughout the district to the effect that the road-makers are not taking the necessary precautions to protect people driving on roads which are being repaired. In one or two instances parties have had narrow escapes from serious accident by running into open culverts or onto plows and scrapers left in the roadway. They think that the road men should hang a lantern at the bad places.

Sergeant Starch reports that the following men have signed on at Lacombe with the 187th Battalion for the week ending Tuesday, June 27th: B. Ta'ert, Bentley; Elmer Ennis, Lacombe; John Quist, Lacombe; C. N. Cox, Lacombe; Francis Heath, Lochinvar; Thos. Whiteside, Iola; Wm. Rolph, Lacombe; G. B. Taylor, Bentley; Oswald Summerset, Lacombe. Two of the above were rejected as medically unfit. We would also like to mention that some of the above are married men who are sacrificing a good deal, financially and otherwise, in order to enlist.

C. N. M. Cox, the well-known Lacombe District farmer, whose place is six miles south and four and a-half miles east of Lacombe, has enlisted for overseas service, and is selling off all his farm stock, etc. See the list elsewhere in this issue. C. F. Damron, Auctioneer.

"Barney" Halpin left on Monday for British Columbia, where he will spend his summer holidays visiting friends and relatives.

John Bergen, whose farm is on the N. E. 1/4 30-43-4, west of 5th Meridian, fourteen miles north of Wittenburg, and sixteen miles west and north of Rimbey, close to Wellstead Green P.O., is holding a sale of all his farm stock and implements on Monday, July 17. He has a good bunch of cattle and horses, and a complete line of farm machinery, etc., which he will sell without reserve, as he is leaving the country. See announcement and list later. C. F. Damron, Auctioneer.

There was a meeting of farmers in Blackfalds on Wednesday evening last, to instruct their councillor with reference to getting rid of the vexed water question in the vicinity of S. W. Paisley's farm. It was decided, after much discussion, that Councillor McLennan would look after the letting off of the water complained of, and that the cost of the work be levied against Division No. 1, and those farmers benefitting from the work. Messrs. Simpson, Paisley and Ball—in proportion to the benefits they receive. Councillor McLennan is the sole judge of the benefits, and the interested parties agreed to stand by his award.

Peter Peterson, a Gilby District farmer, was brought into town on Monday evening in a badly battered condition, and his medical adviser had him taken to the hospital. Mr. Peterson was evidently in a runaway accident, but how it happened no one knows. Mr. Burke and his son were driving home and found the unfortunate man in the middle of the road, near McCully's hill, unconscious. He had fallen from his seat, in his wagon, probably with his head between the box and the wheel, and he is very badly cut up around his head and neck. One ear is badly torn, and there are many other bad gashes. Fortunately no bones were broken, and he will be around in a short time.

P. McDonald Makes Supreme Sacrifice

The citizens of Lacombe were deeply grieved yesterday when word came from the war office that Patrick McDonald, only son of Mrs. P. McDonald, of Lacombe, had been killed in action in France on June 14th.

Deceased was truly a son of Lacombe, having lived all his young life here up to the time he answered the Empire's call for men, and had a host of friends among our citizens. For some time he was with A. Urquhart & Co., and later entered the service of the Merchants Bank of Canada. He was one of the first to join the colors from this district, and an enthusiastic soldier. Formerly a member of the 63rd Battalion, he was a short time ago drafted into another regiment in France. It is only a few months since he went over.

To his bereaved mother and sisters, and other relatives, the sincere sympathy of the citizens of Lacombe is extended.

LIEUT. KENNEDY HEARD FROM

Lieut. R. S. Kennedy, who left Lacombe to enlist at the very beginning of the war, and was wounded at Hulluch on September 26th of last year, is again at the front with his regiment, the 13th West Yorkshire. When he last wrote he was still in good fighting form. He had had one curious little experience in the trenches, however. He felt something give him a tremendous knock on his right arm, but when he looked, expecting to see a wound, he could find only a big bruise. A bullet had ricocheted and had hit him, but had been flattened out by hitting something else first. What he seems to have felt more than anything else in the trenches was loss of sleep. When a unit has finished its turn in the trenches, and come back to rest, the men still have a fair amount of work to do before they get proper hours for sleep. As for more active forms of recreation, we hear of cricket, football, polo, bridge, and anything else that happens along.

This young officer's father, Mr. Howard A. Kennedy, of Lacombe, is still in Ottawa helping the Economic and Development Commission to elaborate plans for future immigration, land settlement, and encouragement of agriculture.

LACOMBE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Miss Poole, Secretary of the Lacombe Women's Institute, has received the following letter, which speaks for itself:

Edmonton, June 14th.
Dear Miss Poole,—We beg to advise you that the Mixed Farming Special Train will reach Lacombe on Saturday, July 8th, and remain from 2 to 5 p.m.

We shall be pleased to meet with as many of the members of your Institute, and their friends, as can find it convenient to be present.

We are also providing a Special Nursery Car for the children, with a competent lady in charge, that the mothers may be free to attend the lectures and demonstrations.

I am, Madam, Yours very truly,
Mary MacIsaac,
Superintendent.

Owing to the first Saturday in July being a holiday, there will be no meeting of the Women's Institute. Every member and their friends are urged to be present at the Special Farming Train on the 8th. We will consider this our July meeting, and we can safely say, one of the best. The sewing meeting for July will be announced later. The meeting held at the home of Mrs. Poole, on the 13th, was a very enjoyable one. There were nineteen ladies present. Mrs. Shaw gave a paper on "keeping away infection." Sewing for the Red Cross was distributed by Mrs. Roberts. The hostess then served lunch, which was very much enjoyed. Other meetings of this kind have been held at the homes of Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. E. R. Kent.

BUTTER FAT

Bentley, June 22nd.
Editor, the Globe, Lacombe:—Sir,—Would you oblige by answering the following question through the columns of your valuable paper?

Question—I send a sample of cream to the creamery and get 23 per cent. of butter fat for my test. I churn 22 lbs. of the same cream and obtain 8 lbs. of butter. How much is the creamery cheating me? What should my test have been? Assume that 100 lbs. of butter-fat makes 116 lbs. of butter?

"FAT-HEAD."

"Fat-Head"—Your question cannot be answered in an entirely satisfactory manner without fuller particulars than you furnish. The amount of moisture left in the butter, the amount of salt added, and when and how it was weighed, are small matters, but very essential to accuracy. Taking, however, your figures as they are given, the writer would say that your cream should have tested 31 per cent. of butter-fat, instead of 23 per cent.

AT THE REX

THE BEST IN MOTION PICTURES

TONIGHT (WEDNESDAY)

A strong programme is offered the patrons of the Rex tonight (Wednesday) when, in addition to the regular programme, a Ford Weekly will be shown, and they are always good. The balance of the programme is as follows: A two-reel Gaumont feature, "In the Leash"; an American film, and a Keystone comedy, "Such a Cook." You will all enjoy the offering tonight.

THURSDAY NIGHT

The offering is "Life's Blind Alley," a romantic Western drama, in five acts, presenting Harold Lockwood, with May Allison and a strong supporting company. It is a De Luxe Edition Masterpicture. Since the change was made in the train schedule these pictures have been sidetracked considerably, but this has now been remedied, and the pictures will be shown Thursday evenings as usual. "Life's Blind Alley" is an exceptionally strong photo-play, and one which will appeal to all lovers of beautiful pictures. It tells the story of how a strong man loved and lost. See it at the Rex tomorrow (Thursday) evening.

FRIDAY NIGHT

One of the most interesting Weeklies that has ever been shown in Lacombe will be that of Friday night—it's a Ford, and is entitled "A Miracle of Manufacture." The making of a Ford car is explained in motion pictures. It gives you a trip through the Ford factory with the camera man, showing the huge plant at Ford, Ont., which has a capacity of 35,000 cars a year. Don't miss seeing this educational film.

SATURDAY NEXT

John Barrymore in an irresistible film version of the famous melodramatic comedy, "The Dictator," by Richard Harding Davis. Mr. Barrymore needs no introduction to the picture fans of Lacombe. It's enough to say that this picture is a Famous Players production; that, in itself, will be sure to be appreciated, and a full house will be had as usual Saturday evening next. Please come early. First show starts at 7.30; second at 9 o'clock. This picture will also be shown on Monday evening.

Come often, and come early.

DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE TO SUCCEED CONNAUGHT

London, June 27.—Official announcement was made today that the Duke of Connaught will be succeeded as governor-general of Canada by the Duke of Devonshire.

BUCK WILL GET A HEARING ON NEW APPEAL

Wichita, Kan., June 26.—U. S. District Judge Pollock, late today, granted Geo. Buck a hearing on appeal for habeas corpus, setting it for Wednesday in Kansas City. Buck has secured former Probate Judge J. N. Haymaker as counsel.

THE RED DEER FAIR

The Red Deer Fair this year comes in the Calgary-Edmonton Circuit, the last half of the first week in July—Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 6, 7, 8. The Directors are putting on the best programme of racing and attractions they have ever had. The racing last year was the best ever seen in Central Alberta, and the $2,500 in prizes for Friday and Saturday racing this year will bring out the best horses on the circuit.

The big free attractions are furnished by the Robinson Amusement Co., and comprise the Mangean Troupe of Acrobats; the Helen Carlos Trio, skatolario artists; the Performing Elephants, and the Casting Campbells, mid-air gymnasts. The presence of the 187 Battalion and band at the Fair every day—their barracks are on the grounds—and their evolutions will be a new and fascinating feature. The best stock on the circuit will compete for the attractive prizes, and altogether the Directors confidently believe they never had a programme which would justify a larger attendance of satisfied sightseers.

THE OWLETTE SAYS
XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Owing to the non-appearance of the sayings of the Owl for the past few weeks Bill Bee Lee has taken it for granted that he has deceased our footings, but this is not the case; far be it from such. Yes, Bill, I overstepped the line a little in denying that you had ancestors 2,000 years ago, as it is possible for you to have anything—but not after the first of July, however.

Mr. Bill Bee Lee was in town the other day, and people were made to think that the recruiting officer got his legs, but did not manage to get the rest of him. We were glad to inform them that this was not the case, but he wore the putties to keep him from getting cold feet after reading the Owl column.

"And what might your name be, little boy?" asked Bill Bee Lee of a young boy the other day. "Well," said the youngster, "it might be Bill, or it might be Ned, but it ain't; it's Jim." In a grammar class the other day the teacher asked the pupils what the sentence "It is twelve o'clock" was. One bright pupil replied: "It is a lie, as it is only half-past ten."

Busy Bill Bee Lee—that's all.

Interesting Letter From Fred Frank

Thos. Jackson, this week received the following interesting letter from Fred Frank, 1st Lieut. 60th Battalion. While only a short time in England, a card received later than the letter states that a draft, in which he is included, has been sent to France. More than four hundred of the 60th are in the draft, and as many are from Lacombe their career will be followed with interest by our readers.

Lydd Camp, Kent,
June 4th, 1917.

Dear Mr. Jackson, I guess you have heard, from various sources, the account of our journey to Halifax, N.S., so I will commence with our departure from that port.

We sailed 10 a.m., May 1st. In dull weather, which continued all the way over.

Immediately after sailing, we were ordered to put a life belt on and wear it constantly, except in our hammocks, when we used it for a pillow.

No lights of any kind were allowed on deck after dark, not even striking a match being permitted, and the Olympic was continually in touch with a cruiser, by wireless, which had left Halifax a day ahead of us. We never saw this cruiser during the daytime, but I suppose she came closer in after dark, as the second night out she wirelessed the troopship that a port hole was showing a light. Investigation being immediately made, it was found that a seagull had opened the port hole of his cabin on account of it "being stuffy," as he said. However, he was placed under arrest, but I did not hear what punishment he got.

Except for numerous tramp steamers heading for America, and a whale which came up less than a hundred yards from the ship for a moment, there was nothing else of interest until we arrived off the north coast of Ireland.

On Friday morning, May 5th, we found seven or eight torpedo-boat destroyers within a couple of miles of us ahead. They were steaming backward and forward across our bow, and they are so fast that, although we were going full speed, 23 knots, they were able to make rings around us, so to speak.

Their manoeuvring reminded me of a bunch of kittens playing about the way they darted here and there.

These destroyers remained close to us until we reached the mouth of the Mersey and the pilot was on board to take us over the bar, after which they vanished as suddenly as they came, probably in order to act as escort for other vessels.

We pulled up at the Liverpool landing stage about 6 p.m. Saturday, and did not go ashore until 7 a.m. Sunday. The trains were all ready waiting for us, and we left Liverpool shortly after 8 o'clock.

The Canadian boys were all delighted with the appearance of the country as we journeyed south towards Kent, because England is, as a corporal-Corporal Wynn from Lacombe, by the way—put it, "This is a hand-picked country," referring to the neatness of the fields and buildings, etc.

We passed through the outskirts of London, and reached Westhanger, our jumping-off place, about 6 a.m. From the station we had to march about two miles to camp. Luckily for us, a bunch of the 64th Battalion, who had arrived a few days ahead, had pitched all our tents, so that there was not much to do to get the camp shipshape.

I have heard that some Canadian battalions have landed here around midnight, and have then been compelled to pitch tents and fix up before they could turn in, so you will understand that we considered ourselves in luck for once.

However, our luck did not last long, as the rations allowed us at first were rotten, and in many cases insufficient to make a decent meal, consequently we had a row at every meal hour for three days, when the commissary improved a little, although it is none too good even now—that is to say, it's pretty poor after the liberal grub we used to get at Edmonton.

But all our continual grumbling does not do much good. All the satisfaction we get is to be reminded that "You're in the army now; you're not behind a plow."

The Canadian troops are scattered all over Kent in small camps, and they are constantly moving them around.

They have already drafted some of our fellows out for special service as butchers, and so on. I expect they will shortly be over in France, if not already there.

Aeroplane from the Shorecliffe aerial station come over camp daily, and generally perform a fancy stunt for our benefit, looping the loop, or something of that nature; indeed, they are so common that we rarely trouble to look now when we hear one coming.

I may say that you can hear an aeroplane a long way off on account of the noise her high-power engine makes, and occasionally they fly very low, while passing over, but generally they are so high up they appear to be no larger than birds.

Lydd, our present location, is pretty old. They have a church here built before 1200. I noticed a tombstone in the church-yard dated 1331; that's a long time ago, isn't it?

We are here for rifle practice at the rifle ranges, but shall not be here very long. As you would have doubtless guessed, I'm not exactly a first-class shot, although I managed to do better than expected, but the longer distances, 400 to 600 yards, "get my goat"—I can't see distinctly enough at that range.

I have, however, put in my application for transfer to the telegraph corps, so perhaps I shall be in different surroundings when I write again.

You would think there is no scarcity of men to see all the soldiers scattered over this country; it seems hardly possible.

I saw one of the ambulance trains pulling into one of the London depots a couple of weeks ago filled with wounded just from the front. The platform was lined up with stretchers ready to take them away, and there are some terrible cases too. I am told that the Germans, before returning English wounded prisoners, fit them out with artificial limbs so perfect that it is not such a handicap, as one might suppose.

The weather has been splendid for some time, so that most of us are keeping in very good spirits, although it is no picnic to be sure.

They got us out on the march at 2 a.m. last Sunday, with our full kit (you know what that means) and brought us to Lydd, a distance of about 18 miles, which was a pretty good try-out; don't you think?

We got up at 3.15 a.m. and go on the ranges without breakfast every other morning, but, as the boys say, "Don't kick, you're tough guys." And so it goes; sometimes better, and sometimes worse.

I understand that the 82nd have just reached Otterpool Camp; that's our first camp, so we shall be able to see Lundy and the other Lacombe fellows very soon.

Of course there are lots of interesting incidents one could mention verbally, but which would take too long to write down, so they will have to be omitted until a better opportunity offers, so I guess I shall have to quit right here.

With kindest regards to all the boys, believe me to be,

Yours very sincerely,
FRED.

PRESIDENT WILSON CALLS OUT ENTIRE MILITIA FOR MEXICAN SERVICE

Washington, June 18.—President Wilson has called out the entire militia of every state for service on the Mexican border. Announcing the president's decision late today, Secretary Baker said the militia would be sent to the border wherever and as fully as General Funston determines them to be needed.

Brig-Gen. Mills, chief of the division of militia affairs, estimated the minimum militia force to be called out to be 145,000 men.

Secretary of War Baker issued the following statement:

"In view of the disturbed conditions on the Mexican border, and in order to assure proper protection for all Americans, the president has called out practically all the state militia, and will send them to the border, wherever and as fully as General Funston determines them to be needed for the purpose."

"If all are not needed an effort will be made to relieve those on duty there from time to time so as to distribute the duty."

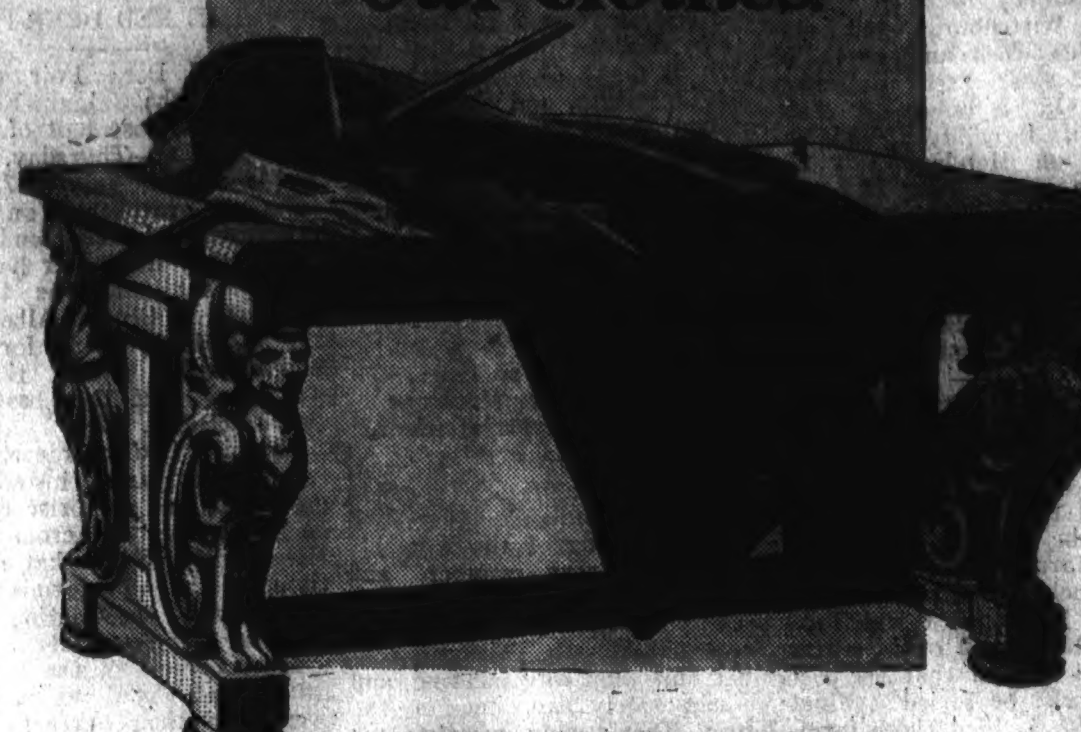

"The call for militia is wholly unrelated to General Pershing's expedition, and contemplates no additional entry into Mexico, except as may be necessary to pursue bandits who attempt outrages on American soil."

"The militia are being called out so as to leave some troops in the several states. They will be mobilized at their home stations, where necessary recruiting can be done."

BUCK LOSES FIGHT AGAINST EXTRADITION

Oil Co., "wanted" in Calgary on the charge of "salting" a well, lost his fight against the extradition proceedings here. United States Commissioner Wall, after a protracted hearing, committed Buck to jail, to abide by an order of extradition by the secretary of state. He forwarded the following certificate to the state department: "It appeared to my satisfaction that there was sufficient evidence to sustain the charge."

The defence has applied for a writ of habeas corpus, on technical grounds, alleging that there is nothing to show that Buck offered any stock for sale after the alleged "salting."

SIR SAM HUGHES DID OBJECT TO YPRES SALIENT

Ottawa, June 13.—The Evening Free Press today published the following letter addressed to Sir Sam Hughes, in which the desirability of having the Ypres salient changed is discussed:

"Dear Earl Kitchener:—Since leaving you I have met a number of Canadian officers who have been discussing the Ypres salient, which our Canadian boys are now going up to hold. They have been drawing plans of it for me and it shows it is practically new territory. As there are no proper trenches or protections, a complete new defence line will have to be made."

"They maintain, also, that they will be under fire practically on two sides, or, in fact, three sides most of the time, and that as the town of Ypres is no longer fit for habitation the new lines should be straightened; the British locating them from new positions, taking in Ypres, leaving the enemy the worst possible ground. They point out, too, that in building their new trenches—if the present lines are followed—it must be done practically in the open and under fire and will entail great and unnecessary sacrifice."

"I do not know whether or not your attention has been drawn to this fact, but there can be no harm in making a suggestion. I presume, however, the whole matter rests with our mutual friend, Sir Douglas Haig."

"Hoping you will kindly give this matter consideration, or submit to Sir Douglas Haig for consideration."

"Faithfully,
(Sign'd) "SAM HUGHES."

CANADA'S PENSION BILL $20,000,000 A YEAR

Ottawa, June 21.—The government has adopted the recommendations of the special committee of parliament which last session considered the revision of the war pension regulations. The present pension board of the militia department has been authorized to adopt the new scale, and to make it retroactive, applying to all pensions already granted since the outbreak of the war. A permanent pensions board, appointed for a long period of years and removed from all political influence, will be named later on, but meanwhile the present mil-

The new scale is considerably higher in the case of privates and other ranks up to lieutenant than the scale adopted a year or so ago.

Already there are some 5,500 names on the pension list, and when all the casualties so far incurred have been dealt with by the pensions board, it is estimated the total number of pension awards will be up to the 10,000 mark. The aggregate of the annual pension bill is now over two million dollars. By the time the war ends it is estimated that the yearly bill for pensions will be fully $20,000,000.

SALE OF TWO PER CENT. BEER HAS BEEN JUSTIFIED

Lethbridge, Alta., June 21.—Judge Jackson ruled late yesterday afternoon, in the district court, that the sale of two per cent. beer was permissible in the province. It allowed to stand this decision which will have far-reaching effect. The clause which defines intoxicating liquor will be the same in the new act coming into effect in a few weeks, and also is the same as that in force in Manitoba. It is understood that the provincial government will contest the decision as soon as the new prohibition bill comes into effect.

The only evidence submitted by the government in the test case, which was an appeal against the dismissal of charges against two local men in the mounted police barracks some time ago was the evidence of the two detectives who made the charges. Supt. Pennefather, of the mounted police, gave evidence that he could not notice any intoxicating effects of two per cent. beer.

Dr. De Veber, among others, gave evidence that there might be as much alcohol in bread as there was in two per cent. beer.

Bad Lands News

A grand fancy dress ball came off the other night in Bentley under the auspices of the Yeomen of the Guard (Beef Eaters).

The spacious hall and reception rooms of the McPherson Block were unable to accommodate the great crowd, and the overflow were disposed of in the magnificent Driggs Hall.

The costumes worn were both unique and costly. One of the most striking, and at the same time inexpensive, was that worn by His Worship Mayor Damron, who came resplendent as a cannibal chef in a paper collar and a pair of spurs. Mr. J. H. Morrison appeared as "Blue Beard," and having borrowed Sherman's whiskers did the part to life. A number of characters from Alice in Wonderland, were present—C. F. Dawson being quite natural as the March Hare; Fred Chapman, the Mock Turtle; F. and P. Thorp as Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee. Otto Hennepkens was the "Wild Man of Borneo," and was particularly wild, as he had just been told in confidence that he had dropped to $6.25. Bill Baillie appeared in a costume of 2,000 years ago as the Grand Duke of York. The costumes were all historically, and otherwise correct, having been censored by the Owl.

The ball was opened by a very realistic and energetic Jamaica Shae-Shae, the music being beautifully rendered by Frank Richards with a comb and a pudding pan. Among those ladies who were indefatigable dancers we noticed Mrs. Jud Carrith, Mrs. Geo. Graham, Mrs. Otto Uhlir, Mrs. Walter Stephenson, Mrs. Nels Larsen, Mrs. Thomas Coates, Mrs. Bob Jaffray, and Mrs. Charlie Hansen.

The supper was a dream to be long remembered by the epicure and gourmet, the kitchen having been in charge of that renowned chef, Bill McPherson's bull cook.

Before leaving Bentley Mr. Coggins had bequeathed to Rev. Mr. Miller a pair of his shoes. One of these was kindly lent by Mr. Miller, and was used by John Ellsworth, Wykoff, and some of our smaller men, who made a very amusing tableau of "There was an old woman lived in a shoe." It was very funny to see these small men frisking around the cavernous interior of the shoe. J. F. Miller was very artistically disguised as the old woman.

We are grieved to hear that certain persons disapprove of the Bad Lands News to such an extent that they have intimated they intend to discontinue the Western Globe till the proprietor discontinues the Bad Lands. We would like to say that the Bad Lands News is not written for the perusal of our intellectual giants and literary high-brows, but is written by the feeble-minded for the feeble-minded.

Further, a subscription to the Western Globe does not entail any compulsion to read all or any part of that enterprising sheet. Our literary connoisseurs can, however, get a great intellectual treat by reading the outpourings of the Owl and items of vivid interest and local color in the doings of Mrs. White Rabbit & Co. in the Society Column. The man who tries to please everyone is a fool, and will find it out before he dies if he only lives long enough. Some nineteen hundred years ago the Son of the Infinite came to this world to give men a chance of eternal life by other means than works. We would have thought He would have been received with the glad hand, but the high-brows of His day said, "He eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners," which, being interpreted into the vernacular, would be equivalent to "Oh! really! He's not our class; he associates with all the beastly cads." If the Son of God could not please everyone how can anyone expect a simple ass like "Our Own Correspondent" to do it?

It at any time we would write anything at which some party should feel aggrieved, we would take it as a personal favor if that person would let us know their trouble. We write nothing with the intention of hurting anyone's feelings, but sometimes something we have written is taken up and given a meaning we never thought of or intended. We had a sample of this shortly after we commenced the Bad Lands News. We had an item that Jas. Muir had visited Bentley, where he saw three men and six dogs, or some such rubbish. At that time there were about 4,937 stray dogs chasing around Bentley, and our item was intended to draw attention to the number of these casual visitors. However, some of the citizens of that enterprising burg took it as a personal reference to them as dogs.

We have found out how to get seeding done early, and mean to work the system next year. It is simplicity itself: just become a grass widow. Bill Baillie put in a grass widow here, having been in the crop for one before he, in the employ of Kennedy & looked after his own. Ben Jas-Russell about a year ago, ter did the same for another.

and Orion Pike did likewise by a third. So next year we are going to be a grass widow and see if Jim Muir or Ben Olson will put in our crop before their own.

Bentley is busy organizing for the 1st of July celebration. There are two things Bentley always does well—a 1st of July celebration and a Thorp, Damron & Co. entertainment. Among the attractions at Bentley this 1st will be a detachment of Horse Marines, who will be sent by Admiral Brownlow, under the command of Commodore Erskine, from the battle fleet on Gull Lake. They will demonstrate musical rides and other forms of fancy drill. The Admiral himself will be in charge of a coconut shy, erected for the purpose of encouraging our young men in the practice of bomb-throwing. A prize of $5,000, presented by the Bentley City Council, will be up for competition between the fire brigade of Bentley, Ramby, and Eckville. We understand the brigades from Lockhart and Wittenberg have been barred, as they are in a class above the three cities mentioned.

Brady Palmer expects a shipment of the now famous Charlie Smith apple cider. This, with his well-known brand of lemonade, will go far to quench the thirst of the assembled multitude.

The S. S. "Bolivia," of the Anchor Line, took a full cargo of produce from Calkins Valley last week, and cleared from Horsteads wharf, Rainy Creek, for Glasgow and Scotch ports, via Montreal. Among the passengers were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peachey, who are going to Timbuctoo to spend their honeymoon.

Now that the end of June approaches we begin to wish we had been built along lines similar to the camel, only more so. Had we been provided with an interior reservoir we would now be busy with George tanking up a supply to last us the next three years.

We have been asked to state that the Bentley celebration committee are assured of fine weather for the 1st of July. Senior Deacon Morrison and Sunday School Superintendent Putland were deputed to supplicate the Clerk of the Weather for a fine day, and they believe their efforts have not been in vain. Added to this General Miles put in a good word on his own account.

Clive News

Roy Kenyon Palmer and Miss Effie Lawson Irving, both of Clive, were united in bonds of holy matrimony Saturday, June 3rd, at the home of John Hoar Ponoka. The ceremony was a private one, the officiating minister being the Rev. J. J. Samuel.

A number of Clive citizens gathered at the home of H. Northcott on Saturday evening, June 17th, the occasion of the gathering being a farewell party to Mr. Henderson, the guest of honor of the evening. An excellent musical duet was one attractive number on the program. There were also piano solos, and Miss Hirona gave a vocal solo. During the early part of the evening, on behalf of the choir and church, W. L. Bradley presented Mr. Henderson with a purse of gold, a recognition of the excellent work Mr. Henderson has done as choir-leader. The parson said he looked forward to the day when some wealthy congregation, by employing his services and paying him a good salary, would give Mr. Henderson scope for his genius as a musician and choir-leader. The evening was spent in games, and after dainty refreshments were served the party dispersed wishing Mr. Henderson a "bon voyage" and good success at his new branch in Neville, Sask.

Ponoka News

The U.F.A. picnic will be held on the fair grounds, on Saturday, July 1st. President Wood is expected to be present and deliver an address.

Miss Myrtle Mattern has undergone an operation for appendicitis in the Lacombe hospital. Latest reports are that she is progressing nicely.

Mrs. O. Williams' reception was well attended on Friday afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. M. O. Nelson, of Wetaskiwin; Mrs. T. J. West, Mrs. Geo. Gordon, Miss Sara Grey, and Miss J. Strang.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ledgerwood were graced by Bashaw with their presence for a few days last week. Their opinion is that this modern Stockholm is some burg, and in this they are quite correct.

The wedding of Miss Annie Stuart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stuart, of Mondamin, Iowa, to John F. Johnson, took place on June 14th. Miss Stuart is a grass widow here, having been in the crop for one before he, in the employ of Kennedy & looked after his own. Ben Jas-Russell about a year ago, ter did the same for another.

weather conditions, the Asker U.F.A. picnic, held at the hall on Friday, was a success in every respect. The attendance was large, parties being present from Wetaskiwin, Ponoka, and the surrounding districts. Among the list of wounded in the recent fighting are the names of Lieut. R. W. Ennor, Pte. Nelson Butlin, Hobema, and Pte. Frank Mott, of Wainwright. The lieutenant was well-known here, being the local representative of the mounted police a number of years ago. Pte. Butlin is a son of Mr. Butlin, the Indian Agent, while Pte. Mott is an old Ponoka boy, having been in the butcher business here prior to his going to live in Wainwright.

RINTELEN SPENT MILLIONS TO GET WAR WITH MEXICO

London, June 22.—It is reported here that President Wilson has received a vast amount of information showing the activities of Franz von Rintelen and other German agents in promoting trouble between the United States and Mexico.

The conspiracy began with von Rintelen, and was carried on after he left the United States to return to Germany in order that he might get more money to carry on his gigantic schemes. All these facts, showing the developments of the whole German conspiracy in Mexico, are said to be in the hands of the cabinet in Washington.

Rintelen, now interned in this country, and about to face proceedings for extradition to the United States, is reported to have admitted to the English authorities that he left a central organization in the United States to carry on his work. It also is said that payments made by him with the aim of fomenting trouble in Mexico, have been checked up and that the entire Mexican propaganda involved the payment of more than $50,000,000. Von Rintelen himself is said to have made payments through a transatlantic trust company in New York to banks along the Mexican border, including El Paso, Brownsville, San Antonio, and other places, with the aim of helping Mexican revolutionists.

He is said to have also made deposits in a branch of the Deutsche bank in Cuba for the benefit of the revolutionists. He paid out $600,000 to purchase rifles and ships for the Mexicans. In fact, so broad was Rintelen's plot that he planned to finance every revolutionary faction in Mexico. He paid money to five factions within Mexican borders, and money to two groups in the United States, namely, the Huertistas and the followers of Felix Diaz, to get them to make more trouble in Mexico.

ARABS ARE IN REVOLT IN ARABIA

London, June 22.—Reports have been received here that a serious uprising against the Turks is in progress in Arabia, and that the rebels have captured the Holy City of Mecca.

A Reuter dispatch from Cairo says the rebels, in addition to taking Mecca, have captured Jiddah, the chief seaport of Arabia, and Taif, 65 miles southeast of Mecca, and have proclaimed the independence of the Arabs from Ottoman rule. It is said the garrisons of Mecca, Jiddah, and Taif, surrendered with the exception of two small forts at Taif, which are still resisting. At Jiddah 45 officers and 1,400 men and six guns, were captured. Medina, 248 miles northwest of Mecca, which contains the tomb of Mohammed, is closely besieged, and all communications to Hejaz are in the hands of the grand sheriff.

STORM AND FLOOD CAUSING HAVOC WITH THE CROPS

London, June 22.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Amsterdam says:

"Violent hailstorms, with floods, are reported to have done much damage to the Hungarian crops. In parts of Roumania, also villages are said to be under water. Fifty persons were killed at Jaffa, and the village of Feuchung has been completely destroyed."

"The weather in Northern Germany continues cold and wet, and as the critical period of the German harvest has begun there is much anxiety, though hitherto the damage is relatively reported not extensive."

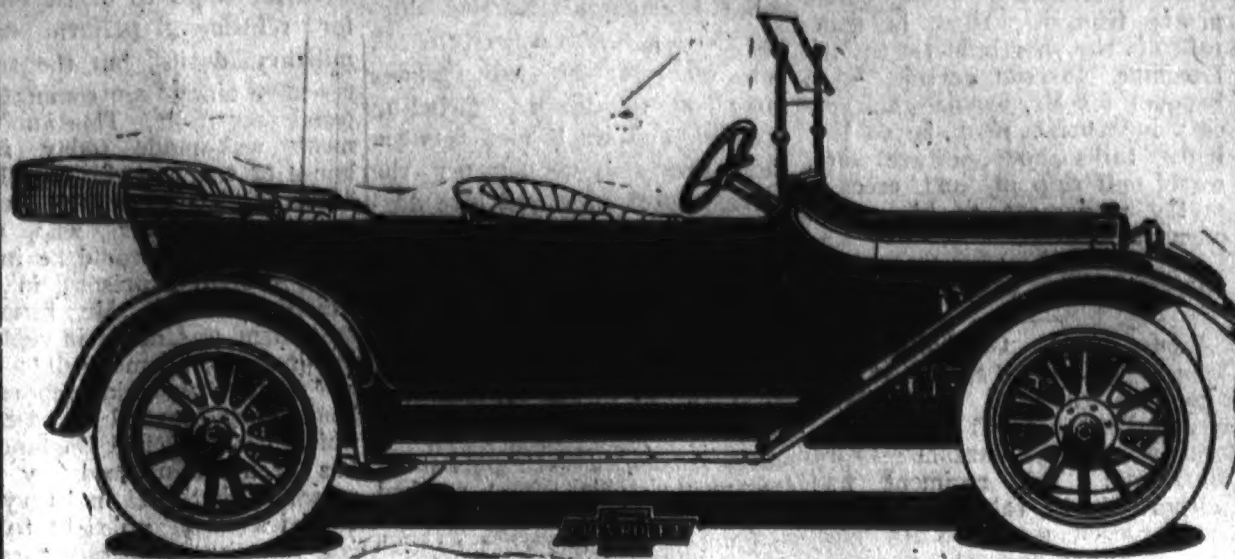

"In South Germany injury to the crops has been greater, hailstorms having beaten down the rye. The rain has helped the hay crop, and rich pasturage has improved the cattle, which suffered severely from a shortage of dry fodder in the winter, but continued rain will have a bad effect."

The Cologne Gazette observes: "We are now passing through an internal crisis, for which our enemies have waited since the beginning of the war."

Chevrolet 'Four-ninety'

"The Product of Experience"

PRICE COMPLETE $750 LACOMBE

Regular equipment. Mohair Tailored Top. Envelopes and Side Curtains. Electric Horn. Clear Vision Ventilating Wind Shield. Speedometer. Electric Starting and Lighting System. Ammeter and License Brackets.

NOTE--Owing to the great demand for this car, we would suggest placing your order early to ensure delivery.

It's a Good Looker

The body is of the streamline type, with deep cowl, extra wide doors, flush sides, concealed hinges, wide seats and spacious leg-room. It has all the appearance of an expensive car.

It's an Easy Rider

The front springs are duplex and are shock-absorbing; the rear springs are very long cantilever suspension type, making this the easiest riding car for its size in the world.

It's an Easy Driver

It has a compound steering gear, composed of spur gears and sector attached to body—the simplest and safest ever invented. It steers properly and, like a heavy car, without any extra appliances.

It's Powerful and Quiet Running

It is of the celebrated valve-in-the-head type, the design, balance, proportion and accuracy of time resulting in a motor which produces as much power for its size and weight as any in the world. It doesn't have a single hinge joint, to squeak or a spring shackle to rattle, and there are only six grease cups in the entire car. It runs quietly even on low speed. It is a finished, complete 1916 automobile for $750 f.o.b. Lacombe.

SEEING IS BELIEVING

See the car and let us demonstrate these facts to you. We have ordered the bulk of repairs we think will be required. A full and complete stock of all repairs will be kept in Calgary, Red Deer, and Edmonton, and anything we do not happen to have on hand can be ordered by phone at a minute's notice. All repairs are very moderately priced. Call in and see our Catalogue of prices for all parts.

We use the Stewart Speedometer, Two-unit "Auto-Lite" Starting and Lighting System with Bendix Drive, same type and grade as used on the higher-priced cars.

Foster's Weather Report

As we see it, this is one of the great Hail Storm years. We are expecting disastrous storms in July, and very severe storms in June. These great storms are expected to include destructive hail storms, and farmers should insure against hail. These hail storms are close kin to tornadoes and thunderstorms.

Storms are 1,000 to 2,000 miles in diameter, and our efforts are to locate their central parts. This storm will affect the whole continent and reach into the Mexican Gulf.

SHEEP OWNERS' ATTENTION

All sheep owners who wish to get the most money for their wool should sell through the Lacombe Wool Growers' Association. Grading will commence on or about June 19th—warehouse will be announced later. Last year the Association sold their wool for 27c, so do not give it away this year. Paper twine can be procured at Morrison & Johnston's. Wool can be delivered at the warehouse in wagon boxes, and wool sacks and packing will be done by the Association. Send in your name at once to T. F. Roberts, Sec.-Treasurer. Annual fee, $1.00. (M.31-2c)

For Sale or Trade

Driving horses, gentle. Also well broken saddle horses. If you want some good heavy work horses, ready to go into the field, see me. Stock cattle always on hand for sale or trade. I handle everything in the line of live stock. J. A. Fife, Chigwell. Phone or write. (M.31-4p)

The Finish

And now we have arrived at the beginning of the end of The Globe's Great Circulation Campaign.

Before another issue of the Globe appears all votes MUST be handed in to the Campaign Manager at the Globe Office.

The candidates have up to midnight on Tuesday next (July 4) to get their votes in. Please remember this—no votes will be received after midnight, July 4.

The race is a merry one at present, each and every candidate making these last days and hours count, and rightly so, as they are all pretty well bunched, as will be seen by the following standing—according to returns received up to Tuesday noon:

Ronald McCully, 313,500.
W. Reid, 293,500.
E. Madden, 180,700.
Kenneth Matheson, 134,500.
L. E. Cole, 97,050.
Mrs. Dahl, 30,000.
Glen Going, 29,700.

Who'll be the winner? That will be known when the three local managers of the banks have counted the votes, and not before. We have no interest in the matter other than giving the car to the one the committee decides has the most votes to his or her credit. We have no favorites in the contest.

Every candidate should attend strictly to their "knitting" during these closing hours of the contest—keeping at it will make a great difference in the above figures.

We wish you all success.

A CHECK PROTECTOR THAT PROTECTS

James McVay, an old-time citizen of Lacombe, but lately of the Other Side, is in town this week demonstrating the F. & E. Check Protector, for which machine he has the selling rights for the three Western Provinces. The F. & E. Check Protector is the last thing in check protectors—nothing giving more protection to the check writer could be invented. The machine writes the check—or punches the writing in—with an acid-proof ink, and it is absolutely impossible to raise a check written with this protector. Check raising is a very common practice, even in Sunny Alberta, and a great many business men have lost money through the operations of some slick operator. With the F. & E. Check Protector you can be absolutely sure that the amount you write is the amount the bank will pay—you are not taking a chance.

THE GREAT NORTHERN OIL AND ASPHALT CO.

As announced in the letter from Mr. Coyne, to the Editor of the Western Globe, the great complimentary banquet given "me and my wife," as Mr. Coyne naively remarked, came off as advertised—cold hand-out and all. We could not be present to do honor to the gentlemanly president of the Great Northern Oil and Asphalt Company, Non-Personal Liability, but our heart was with him and the others who, after purchasing shares, had the timidity to, blow in $1.00 for a hand-out at the Macdonald Hotel, Edmonton, and then cough up two-tits for a neat tin souvenir to remember

GILLETTE'S BEATS LYE

Mr. Coyne by. We had an idea that shareholders in the company had enough souvenirs—the stock certificates would look pretty framed. There is some talk of the shareholders in the Lacombe District getting up a banquet for Mr. Coyne—the seventy influential men he so lovingly talks about, we are sure, would all chip in and erect a pretty monument to him as a memento.

RECRUITING FOR BANTAMS

Lieut. J. A. Greenhill, well-known in Lacombe, and at one time on the staff of the Merchants Bank here, is in town recruiting for the Bantams—143rd Battalion. This regiment was authorized to take care of the smaller-sized men who are anxious to enlist, but who were under size for the other battalions, and is filling a big gap. There are many young men who do not come up to the height insisted, on in the army regulations, and it has proved a disappointment when they have been turned down by recruiting officers.

The headquarters of the 143rd is in Victoria, B.C., where they have an ideal camping ground on the ocean front.

Lieut. Greenhill will be pleased to meet any "Bantams" who are thinking of enlisting. Another thing in connection with the recruiting in Alberta—there is going to be an exclusive Alberta Company, and all from this Province will be in it. A man who joins from Alberta will always be with his own friends.

Lieut.-Col. Bruce Powley, well-known to many in Lacombe, is officer commanding.

Eyesight is no bar to enlistment now. The government will supply glasses to those who have not good sight, but would be eligible otherwise.

BLACKFALDS CELEBRATION

Blackfalds will celebrate, on July 1st, with the best program of sports yet attempted. The Red Deer Citizens Band will furnish music for the occasion, and there will be a baseball tournament in which four ball teams have entered. There will be a dance in the hall in the evening, music being furnished by the Red Deer Orchestra. The evening sports consist of foot races for men, boys, and girls, and also jumping events. A good attendance is looked for, and the management guarantees the weather.

COMMUNICATION

Lacombe, June 28th.
To the Editor of the Western Globe:

Dear Sir,—The article appearing in your last week's issue, and quoted from the Erskine Review, states that "few if any" employed by this station have enlisted for Overseas Service. The impression left with the public with regard to our last year's record is wrong, and I would like to place the facts before your readers.

Alberta, as a Province, is generally considered to have done then cough up two-tits for a neat tin souvenir to remember census, the number of men in Alberta between the ages of 18 and 45, was 122,915. The number enlisted from the Province since the beginning of the war to the beginning of June was 30,704, or about twenty-five per cent. of the men between the above ages. Employees who have enlisted from this Station constitute the last year constitute 36 per cent. of the full summer force of the Farm, including married and single men between these ages. If we consider the average force employed here during the year, the enlistments for the past year are forty-five per cent. of the staff.

If the editor of the Erskine Review would verify the reports he hears in regard to past enlistments, he would avoid the odium connected with publishing statements which have reached him through someone who spoke in ignorance of the facts, or with the desire to willfully misrepresent the case.

Sincerely yours,
G. H. Hutton,
Superintendent.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS GET STIFF SENTENCE

London, June 27.—Thirty-four soldiers, who are serving unwillingly at the front, having stated they entertained conscientious objections to military service, were sentenced to death recently for refusing to perform certain military duties, but the sentences have since been commuted to penal servitude. This announcement was made today in the House of Commons by Harold J. Tennant, parliamentary under-secretary for war, who added that the men would be imprisoned in civilian prisons in the United Kingdom. Mr. Tennant's statement was made in reply to inquiries who demanded to know the truth concerning reports about court-martial proceedings which have reached England. It has been maintained by some persons that the military authorities have no right to punish conscientious objectors for refusing to do what they consider morally wrong.

Crops are looking fine here, with promise of an abundance of hay, the warm rain of a few days ago bringing the grass a long splendidly.

We are glad to learn that the 89th Battalion have landed safely in England. A number of men from this district and vicinity are in that popular battalion; among them are Mr. A. C. Hare, Mr. W. A very pretty wedding was solemnized on the evening of June 22nd, when Miss Ethel M. Ferguson was united in holy wedlock to Mr. K. V. McNeil, both of this district. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ferguson, in the presence of a few friends of the family. Rev. Bradley, of Clive, officiated. The bride was charmingly gowned in white shadow-lace over silk. A dainty and beautiful supper was served. Speeches were made by Rev. Bradley, R. Ferguson (father of the bride), and H. Clough, to which Mr. McNeil responded in a few well-chosen words. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, showing the high esteem in which they are held. We join with their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life together.

Elkhorn News

We have not seen any news from our quiet valley for some time.

We have had a cold, backward spring. It did seem as if this was going to be a year without any summer. There has not been much warm weather as yet.

I guess the Bad Lands scribe will have his garden all up by this time; so much hot air out that way. We did not have much here during the first few weeks in May. If we left, the water-pails out all night we could skate on them in the morning, but after the rains came it warmed up a bit.

The grain crops look well even if it has been cold. There is not much use in planting a garden, as the cut-worms destroy it as soon as it is up.

Mr. E. J. Howe is on the survey this summer. Mrs. Howe and son are running the ranch.

Mr. E. Ogilvie has erected new buildings on his farm north of here.

John Hubbard is also building a new house. We don't hear any talk of hard times.

Markets keep good, and this is fine growing weather, so no need to kick.

We enjoyed that social cup of tea with you, Mrs. Kent, in your nice new house on June 17th; seemed like the good old days at home.

Divine service was held in our school-house on May 28th, and will continue throughout the summer every two weeks. Rev. Mr. Young, of Iowa, will conduct the services. We hope that all who can will turn out. Service in the evening at half-past seven.

Mrs. J. C. Smith and Mrs. E. Howe were visiting Mrs. A. Rourke one fine afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Aroh. McFetridge and little son, Howard, called on us last evening.

These pleasant June evenings tempt anyone out, but one needs to carry a smudge to keep away the mosquitoes.

The U.F.A. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ogilvie on Monday evening, June 12th. A large number turned out, both ladies and gentlemen. The bride and groom were present. A pleasant evening was spent. The best part of the programme was the nice supper prepared by the ladies. At a late hour all left for their homes feeling better for their pleasant meeting together.

Road work is the order of the day this week; most everyone at it. Joe and Irie Kangeiser are up doing theirs.

Quite a number from this district have joined the Orange Lodge at Lockinvar, and get home nice and early in the morning.

Billie B. we see you are still doing business at the same old stand. It must take a lot of time to write such breezy notes. It's entirely too bad our Yankee Cousin got cold feet and had to track back home. We have been here since 1901, but are not frozen up yet. These fine June days are beautiful; everything looks so fresh and green. Every country has some drawbacks. Our Valley is very dry this Spring; not even a wedding. A dance in the near future. Girls, get busy.

The nation will be mourning for the great war general, Lord Kitchener, for many a long day. His place will be hard to fill. He gave his life for his country, but left no wife or sweetheart to mourn for him. Many brave men have fallen in this cruel war.

Fairview News

Thursday, July 20th, is the big day of the year in this district. Why? Because that is the day the annual Sunday School picnic will be held at Henry's Lake. Further particulars later.

This is the last week of the Globe's car contest. Will all those of my friends who have promised me their support please have their subscriptions and coupons in not later than July 1st. I may not get time to visit you all. Yours truly, Ernest Madden.

The trustees of the Arbordale School District wish to remind the ratepayers that July 1st is the last day in which they can save themselves the penalty which comes in force after that date by paying up taxes. They also wish to state that considerable improving has to be done to the school building during the holidays, and other expenses met, and they ask, if possible, that all ratepayers seeing the notice pay their taxes, and so make it easier for the trustees to make the necessary arrangements. Don't forget July 20th, and keep the date free from all other engagements.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Red Cross sewers and knitters will meet at the home of Mrs. J. B. Harrington on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Few people outside the war zone can form any adequate idea of war's immense wastage of material. Minds accustomed to the orderly economy of peace cannot realize the colossal destructiveness of all the processes of war. Red Cross material is not exempt from this general wastage. Hospital ships are sunk; Red Cross ambulances are destroyed by shell fire, or break down under the wear and tear of rough roads. No matter how economical the administration of Red Cross hospitals, the steady influx of wounded causes constant depreciation of the initial equipment. A perfect Red Cross organization, such as Canada has become famous for, requires continual replenishment of material. Those who gave generously at the outbreak of war, to the equipment of Canadian Red Cross hospitals need not wonder, therefore, that fresh funds are constantly necessary. The upkeep of the admirable Canadian Red Cross system demands further gifts. The Red Cross is a splendid national investment which, great as it is, would be lost without further contribution of capital. The generosity which counts is the generosity which continues to the end, till there is no further need of sacrifice. Just as the soldier on active service has the right to expect that the civilian population will diligently supply him with munitions of war, so nurses of such devotion have the right to demand increasing Red Cross munitions. The claim of France to our Red Cross support has been generously acknowledged by the Canadian Red Cross, which, with admirable wisdom and charity, has proclaimed a Red Cross Entente Cordiale between Canada and France. Our Red Cross Society is entitled to expect in its own right, by reason of its devoted care of our own Canadian wounded, a maximum output of Red Cross munitions in Canada.

Editor Western Globe:

Dear Sir,—After reading your notes, in last week's issue, on the employment of so many young men at the Government Farm, I considered it would be worth investigating and that a few hours holidays around the farm would not be disagreeable. Next morning I called for my good Irish boots and soon sailed forth to be met near the gates by one who had more white hairs on his chin than black. After this there appeared two with "gray hairs among the gold," and another with white locks about his temples. By what I hear, there are four on the place even older than the latter, and it seems to me hardly right to ask such to go to the front, when there are far younger men in business and profession in every town and village in Alberta whose work could be done any day by women, whereas they would find the work done by these men rather hard and quite unsuitable for the fair sex. Another worker, whom I meet nearly every day, has served his country well and felt the heat in the South African war, and from all accounts there are two more able to wear, with honor, the stripes for active service in Russia. They, with the two or three others, did not seem to be mere youths who needed telling that they are needed at the front. In the many hours spent on the farm, I only noticed two young men, and the question at once arose, "Will not these men be needed in the South before offering their services to dear old England?" The example set by England in appointing Mr. Lloyd George in Earl Kitchener's place, so as not to "upset the good work now being done in each department" by having a general move up, is also good in Canada—retain at any cost the heads of each department."

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, I can only think you have been misinformed, and the two or three young men have been turned into fifteen active men now engaged on the farm. JUSTICE.

Arbordale U. F. A.

The next regular meeting of the above Union will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sharp on Monday, July 10th. All members who have not yet handed in their deposit on tender twine orders had better do so at once, or their orders will be cancelled.—E. H. Aldwinckle, Sec. Treas.

The next meeting of the Helping Hand Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Gaiskill on the evening of July 6th. Members of the Society wishing to remain members kindly attend next meeting and pay your back dues, or your name will be erased from the membership roll.

THE EDITOR IS BORN

A youngster, whose father was editor of a small town daily, was asked to write a composition on Professional Men.—If an editor makes a mistake there is a law-suit and swearing, and a big fuss, but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers, and perfect silence. A doctor can use a word a yard long without him or anybody knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. If a doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit, but if the editor goes he gets a charge of buckshot. When the doctor gets drunk it is a case of being overcome by the heat; if he dies it is from heart trouble; when the editor gets drunk it is a case of too much booze, and if he dies it is the jimmies. Any old college can make a doctor; an editor has to be born.

Enemy aeroplanes have bombed towns on the Suez Canal. They came from somewhere. The inference is that behind the veil of the censorship there is a concentration of Turkish-German troops somewhere in Syria, and that only the vigilance of the British forces has prevented an invasion of Egypt during the winter. Those forces, it may be surmised, do not agree with Canadian journalists who last fall ridiculed the idea that Kultur could engineer any such ambitious undertaking as an invasion of Egypt or India. Evidence now available establishes that invasions of both these dominions were planned and would have materialized if the officials along the frontiers and in London had been as blandly stupid as Canadian papers, which could see nothing in such projects but the dreams of alarmists.

BASEBALL

RIMBEY DEFEATS LACOMBE

(By a Rimby Scribe)
"We went; we saw; we conquered."
The enterprising citizens of Bentley, wishing to secure a big crowd for the White Elephant Sale, struck the keynote when they arranged for a ball game between Rimby and Lacombe on Saturday last. The meeting of the two teams has been looked forward to for almost two years, and was finally pulled off on neutral ground.
The interest of the big crowd was intense throughout the entire game.

Rimby has felt that her team was worthy of meeting such teams as Lacombe, and her faith was fully justified by the outcome of the game, the score being 15-10 in favor of Rimby.

Game Sidelights

Messrs. Seiler and McPherson umpired the game in a very satisfactory manner. Some decisions were questioned, but neither side was favored.

It was with great regret that Rimby witnessed the departure of Pitcher Danner from the mound at the close of the second inning. Pitcher Metzgar was the next lamb led to the slaughter.

On several occasions short-stop Danner relieved left-fielder Bullis while he was taking a "hike" through the country in search of the "pill."

Metzgar let a strike slip over the plate while he was conversing with the fair maidens along the side-lines. We suggest that in the future he keep his eye on the pitcher.

Most of the Rimby batters scored to stop on first base, but made for Lacombe's Candy Kitchen on second.

Lacombe's grain buyer and 3rd baseman, Garland, expected to find a great quantity of Rimby

"hay seed" in Bentley on Saturday. Prices were good, but no offerings.

We understand that the Lacombe fielders did brilliant work, but owing to the great distance at which they were compelled to station themselves from the diamond most of the crowd was unable to see it.

Short-Stop Danner, like the Ford car, ran entirely on his reputation.

Umpire Seiler was ably assisted by Lacombe's catcher.

But, "in conclusion," and laying all jokes aside, we found them a fine bunch of fellows, and Rimby hopes to meet them again.

Bentley News

Monday, June 23.

Sunday was an ideal summer's day, but Monday has opened wet.

The big sale, ball games, and entertainment, on Saturday, were well attended, and a fine time was enjoyed by those present. The sale netted $117.30 for the M. E. Church. The Ladies Aid lunch counter did a thriving business. In the afternoon the Rainy Creek ball team defeated the Centre Valley team, and in the evening the Rimby team defeated the Lacombe boys. In the former game the pitching of J. Nelson was a feature of the game, in which he struck out eight men in three innings. In the Rimby-Lacombe game the heavy hitting of Rimby, coupled with some poor throwing by the Lacombe boys, decided the game.
The entertainment in the evening, at the Church, was of a very high order, and included the best talent in the Province in elocution, singing, and accompaniment.

The Damron-Thorp Meat Market is now open, and the finishing work is being rushed to completion. Fresh meats are again obtainable in Bentley.

Bentley has decided to take a team into the Baseball Tournament at Kimby on the 1st.

James McPherson is moving into Thistle Inn, at the Lake, this week, and many of the cottages are being occupied. On Sunday the Lake had some hundreds of visitors that enjoyed the bathing and boating. Dozens of cars and rigs brought the crowds.

There will be a registration service opened at the "Thistle Inn," where as complete a registration of the comers as possible will be kept, with the cottage occupied. This will assist many of those arriving to find their friends which heretofore, has often been annoying.

Some species of army worm is infesting this district and stripping the poplar trees of all the leaves. They will march in droves, covering a strip from fourty to fifty rods wide, and when they pass on the timber has lost its green foliage. So far we have not heard of their taking any of the crops.

Don't forget that Bentley will celebrate on Wednesday, July 5th. The baseball tournament will be the last yet, as both Rimby and Lacombe teams expect to compete. An invitation is extended to all ball teams in this vicinity. All entries must be in by noon on the day of the celebration. The usual program of sports and attractions will be carried out.

Blackfalds News

Rev. Mr. Amos arrived in town Saturday evening and conducted services at the rural points of his field on Sunday. He will preach in the Methodist Church here next Sunday.

Miss McGregor, travelling secretary of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, gave three delightful and instructive addresses on the Blackfalds' Mission Field last Sunday. At Saturday a branch society was organized, with Mrs. Ed. Fawcett as President, and Miss Evans as Secretary. The ladies at Brooksley decided to join the Satinwood branch. The membership of the Blackfalds branch was considerably increased.

The children of the lower room of the Public School, with their mothers and teacher, held a picnic at Jackfish on Saturday.

The 187th Battalion ball team played the locals here on Tuesday of last week, and were defeated by a score of 11-8. The batting of the home team was all that could be desired, Geo.
Wady's home-run hit, with 2nd base occupied, being the feature of the game. A peculiar kind of nervousness badly handicapped the soldiers. Every one had to be on his toes all the time, for he knew the "Mann"-ager had "700" others of his kind to replace him should he miff a ball or fail to connect with the pill when wielding the stick. Such knowledge, we fear, would "get" even a Ty. Cobb. A most unfortunate accident occurred during the game, when H. Miller and Alf.
Sorenson collided while catching a foul ball, the latter receiving injuries which forced him to retire from the game.

At the close of the ball game last week a recruiting meeting was held in the town hall, and an address was given by Lieut.
McMorris, of the Princess Pats.

To the member of the Black-falds ball team who, during the July 1st celebration games, hits the ball that counts the most bases F. S. Milliken will give a base-ball bat as a prize.

All roads will lead to Black-falds on Saturday, July 1st, for the big celebration, where a programme of sports and entertainment that has never been surpassed, even in the big cities, will be held. Come along and enjoy a good outing. The Ladies Aid will be well prepared to cater to your inner wants.

We are glad to report that Alf.
Sorenson, whose leg was injured in a recent ball game, is doing nicely, and we all hope to see him out again soon. The boys all regret that he will not be able to get in the games on July 1st, for his absence on the lineup means a decided weakening to the team.

Mr. Robert Schuler is a visitor in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLeod had a visit from their son and grandson, of Stettler, over the weekend.

Rimby News

Miss Florence Cumberland has been visiting Miss Marie Coverdale the past week.

Twenty pupils wrote on the examinations at Rimby the past week.

Next Saturday is July 1st, and we are expecting you.

Quite a crowd of our young folks, drove to Weisville and spent Sunday.

More than forty of our people went down to Bentley to witness the ball game between Rim-by and Lacombe.

Grandma Pidgeon is very poorly at this writing.

Miss Bradley, who has taught the Symonds school so successfully for the past few months, will leave for her home soon after the 1st.

Mr. Geo. Manson, the popular teacher of the Rimby school, will leave for a visit with home folks in the East to spend his vacation.

About twenty-five of Miss Patch's friends gave her quite a surprise on Thursday evening, it being the anniversary of her birth. We have not learned the particulars, but feel sure they were loyally entertained, and join with the other friends in wishing her many happy returns of the day.

A full account of the surprise the Rimby ball boys gave the Lacombe ball boys and supporters will be given in another column.

Mr. D. Chaffee, one of the highly respected citizens of this community, who had been in poor health for a long time, passed away last Friday morning, and the funeral was held at the Rim-by M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. Irwin. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and was 71 years old at the time of his death.

Wittenburg News

You will not need a correspondent from Wittenburg any more,
as John Rotherham is driving the stage.

John Barker, from this district, is working on the roads with W. H. Hunt.

L. H. Chabotte was a business

We will take a round out of

Gull Lake News

Miss Inez King and Miss Frances Court were in Lacombe trying their 9th grade exams. on Friday and Saturday of last

Lee Siler left for Mr. Smith's on Monday morning, intending to be away for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moore and family were visiting at Mr. En-east King's for a few days last week.

A number in this vicinity have been hauling their potatoes to Lacombe. A few loads of hogs also went in last week.

There was a large crowd at the H. H. S. last Wednesday at Mrs. Mel Roe's.

Mr. Siler and family were visiting at Mr. Ritter's on Sunday. Mrs. Reite is improving slowly.

Mr. Siler got in a mix-up at

SUMMER SCHOOL SEE Y. CHAPMAN JULY AND AUGUST

the big ball game at Bentley, on Saturday, and we'd like to know what the other fellow looks like.

There will be a farmers' basket picnic at the Meridian on July 1st. Free lemonade. Everybody invited.

Local People Get
Instant Relief

Those who have used it in Lacombe are astonished at the IN-STANT action of simple Buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. Because it acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL Adler-ika relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach, or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. A.
